WHAT BEING IN LOVE MEANS?!

INTRODUCTION

His love ... Her fantasy

... understanding what love is about

As friends, as a man, but also as a woman, we try to define the undefined from a love story.

Dreaming about love and being in love ... the path from the fantasy to the love story itself ... is just a matter of luck ... or maybe where you find yourself, on the timeline of your own life.

Maybe is the perfect time for you to explore what love is about, or maybe other things are important at the moment ... and the love story can only be a future "project".

Exploring what love is about ... in our minds, as a fantasy ... or in the real life, as a real love story ... is depending only and only if we are ready or not.

But what is the difference between fantasy and reality, when even the Bible is saying that everything we see is just an illusion?

Well ... i believe that the fantasy is only the begining of defining what we want ... and the love story is the "experiment" itself.

Is it too much to name a love story ... an "experiment"?!

Well ... exploring ... as a fantasy or as reality is letting your soul understand what love is about.

And ... sometimes is even a life lesson.

The moment when you jump into the fairy tale ... the real fantasy ... and you understand the meaning of love ... the fact that love is about giving and not about receiving ... that is the moment when you also understand what life is about.

Accepting your partner, just as he / she is ... just as accepting all the people from our lives is the moment of awakening.

Me, Adrian ... and my dear Annie ... are only trying to define the unseen path from fantasy to the love story itself.

And also ... let you know that this path is leading you to point when your thinking will be totally redefined.

Life itself ... is about love.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Seeing what love is about ... is understanding the meaning of life.

If the "love chapter" started for you ... even if it's just a fantasy of reality ... you should be happy.

The awakening will come to you!

Love again?

I never thought I will fall in love again after seeing him! It just was a social media meeting, dating 😊

Just in an hour we felt so connected! I felt so comfortable, warmth talking to you. I really dream for this kind of relationship!

It's time to accept what's coming on my way!

It's not about, how handsome you are! What's ur past! I don't care!

I just felt that the universal connected our destiny together. Our soul recognized each other!

Of coz its unbelievable, but our hearts meant to be.

I'm in love again! Feeling so much loved by someone I never even see before. No physical touch. Just everything was illusion

It's too difficult, hard, incredible finding distance relationship.

We both trust each other, there much love mixed feelings! We encourage each other. We pray together. No matter what we put God in the first place.

Distance from each other is killing us, but Still we r enjoying talking to each other for hours n slept together till the next morning. Only our souls knows how much do we feel it to be together

There's no more loneliness, coz he filled up my emptiness

There might be no tomorrow. So let's live this day filling with love, joy feelings we have today. Hoping one day we will meet my love ❤️

The absence of hope
"Do u still believe in us?!"
I mean ... 1%?!"

On the path of life ... i mean the real one, not the one from our head ... we just live all kinds of disappointments ... that ruins everything means hope.

The optimism is the illusion of a better reality ... or even of a great reality ... but how should exists hope in the soul, without the illusion that we can live in a beautiful reality?!

It says that the secret of life is enjoying the present moment... but just as it is.

It basically can be translated as ... you can be in a beautiful restaurant with your partner ... that person that you dislike and hate so much ... and see how unhappy you are ... even if the atmosphere from that place is fantastic.

The food is great, the waiter is a very nice person, the lady from the bar smiles you ... but the person in front of you, while staying on the table ... is driving you crazy with that look.

And you do what?!

You just feel miserable again.

One more time, you went out to change your vibe ... and you just ruined even more the vibe you had.

Maybe no one ever told you about ... "Enjoy the present moment!" ... or you just don't know what Carpe Diem means ... but no matter where you are, on the timeline of your life ... in a luxury restaurant or in the prison canteen, staying with other prisoners on the table ... you should just enjoy that you are alive and try to see the beautiful side of what you have in the real life.

You see, in a love story, you can be the prisoner of that story.

There will be many moments of disappointments between the 2 of you.

You can feel like being in a beautiful restaurant, but only staying in the kitchen of an ugly rented apartment ... or staying in the most expensive restaurant from Monte Carlo and feel like you are eating in the prison canteen, staying near the other "prisoner" ... which is your partner.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Maybe you should try to find the 1% ... of believing in the 2 of you ... as a couple.

Wayne Dyer used to say ... "change the way you look at things and the things you look at change".

The crazy of us!

Me and my husband married for years, after 5 years in a relationship. It's already 12 years anniversary we are celebrating! With still branded new love..

We've been trying to add on new member to our family! Long waited, but it's all blessings from the universal! We are just kept on trying!

We spare time for each other whenever there's a chance! We call just to say I miss you! Just to hear his voice, to feel been with him.

There are times he back home just to make love! We love like those young couple! We go for a date after his hectic day! We get erected to each other easily! Our kisses won't end if we started!

We Love each inch of each other. We appreciate for who we are. We admire our spouse! The smell of us, is our favorite scent!

We exchange our coffee, our drinks! He holds my hand while he driving. He will surprise me with lovely cute surprises! He kiss me while waiting in the traffic!

We obsessive about each other. We are addicted to each other. He will text messages while working outside!

There's once we make love in the day time and forgot about everything! Suddenly he received a call from our son's school principal because we forgot to pick up him!

We spent evening at beach bay near to our house. He always connected to me. His hands will be around me and our son.

Evening dinner we cook together while romancing in the kitchen! We make, son doing his homework in his room!

We need each other help! Working together in the kitchen is the sexiest part! Our bodies get aroused while moving in the small space kitchen! Yeah we got our foods burnt many times!

Both of us, keep up fire our intimacy together! In fact we are creative, multiple task while trying new stuff at home!

Whatever, we are in love. Not yesterday, today, but everyday, every moment we appreciate the relationship we have together.

“Let’s agree to just love one another without expectation”

How can we define love without expectation?!

Can it exist? Or is just a theoretical concept?!

I believe that in the real world we can practice love without expectations, but only if it's kind of platonic love.

Imagine you meet on social media .. someone that lives 5000 km away ... you speak everyday, but maybe there is only 0.01% chances as you meet that person in the real life.

Can you love that person?!

If that person represent the ideal you have in mind when it comes about love story ... maybe the answer is yes.

But when you understand that you will probably never meet ... you will be able to practice love maybe we should define it as platonic love ... with no expectation.

In the real life ... we give a piece of our soul ... or maybe the whole soul and we expect to receive something back.

And we don't expect to see only love in return ... we expect to see love translated through different things or actions.

Living without expectations means to live your life, and let the Universe decide what should be offered to you.

Never ask, never expect anything, but hope it will be the love story of your life.

You might lose your mind, your soul ... your everything ... but in the end ... playing all in the fairy tale ... you might find the path to supreme happiness.

Just be honest and love with an open heart.

Good things will happen.

#adriangdumitru

Suffering in silence

I'm suffering in silence! I'm having hard times. Because we are apart 6K miles away from each other. 5hours different for us! I can't wait to hold my sweetheart. Your memories ghosting me everyday!

Don't ever compare me with your past relationships! Our relationship is something beyond that! My endless love for you makes me yearn more.

All the desires all the needs and the wishes borne, baby I love you like no one else will do.

Our love story was unusual, but it is so true. I still remember that moment when I first met you. I never thought that I would love someone so special in my life. You are now a part of me, that without you I won't survive. Why I love you so much, I also have no clue. But, I just wanna tell that it's true. I just wanna tell you that, my baby I love you and will always do.

#anniepdavid

"Because i love you, it does not mean i give you the right to be selfish"

How do you combine love with selfishness?!

Can they coexist in a love story?!

But what if selfishness is your main characteristic and one day you fall in love?!

Can you forget about selfishness?!

I believe it all depends of how much you love that person ... and your real intension with that person.

The transition between selfishness ... which sometimes also means self love ... to love ... real love ... means jumping from your own universe to the world created by the love between you and your partner.

Many, many years ago, i heard this ... "Because i love you, it does not mean i give you the right to be selfish"

I had no clue why someone should tell me this ... because i was not considering myself selfish.

But most probably i was very, very, very selfish.

You see, we love to be loved ... and even if love itself is not a business, like to give something and receive something ... love is not only about receiving ... but most probably is about giving ... giving your love and affection.

To be in love ... means to connect with that person ... and express your love in a real way.

Expressing your selfishness, which will be there all the time, as a part of you ... will mean only that you still want to be alone, even if you like being in the love story.

To be in the story ... you need to act in a different way as you used to act.

Self love and even selfishness are ok ... but in a fairy tale, to be that character that is on the stage of the love story ... you just need to think more of the 2 of you ... as a couple.

Most probably, the partner will accept you just as you are ... but only till one day when ... will say "Enough!"

Don't be a selfish person ... just be a loving one.

He changed my life upside down!

Since ever I met this guy, my life changed upside down! I'm going through better transformation in my life. It's a beautiful changes, with more happiness, pleasant moments start to occupy on my way.

The life I dreamt before! My dreams are get manifested? Everything as I wish before is happening in my life.

Meanwhile at this aged, this man decide to choose me! He wants to settled down stable relationship with me! As I'm so reliable and honest all this while, he get attracted to my characters!

I have told him about my past, before the beginning I have to end up my Ex relationship legally. He make sure that I make my own decisions, as he don't want to juggling with anyone or any matter over here.

Therefore, he said he will be there no matter what. Decisions is just on my hand!

So, I have decided to end up been single lady, and begin new fresh life! It's not bout me alone, of coz its all about my beloved son too. He loves to been in a family. He wants siblings, fatherly man guide for him.

He not only loving me, but my son too. He spend quality of time with him as well. Both spend time on playing games, talking through video calls and so on. After so long, we get a championship with someone who is loveable, respect and caring us.

The more we talked the more he get to know about us, like us. I always thought it only happens to those who are lucky! Or it will happen 1 in 1000000. And now, I really thank God for the good things reach me, all the things happened for a reasons. And I'm so grateful for his love!

My love, he so faithful, loving, caring and hardworking person. Very spiritual and believe in God as I am. He might rich but still he follows traditional manner, and everything he wants happened in traditional way too.

He is my king coz he treats me as his empress queen! He freaking love with me! But I surrender to God.

I don't know whether this new beginning will lead for, or go how far! Of coz I deserve better life, loved by someone special! Should I miss this super good kisser in my life? Let's see the flow

"If you are not decided which one to choose, between me and her ... don't bother to choose me"

She was in love ... of a person that belonged to someone else.
In the beginning she accepted things just as they were ... but later on she realised that life is short and should spend it ... only in the direction the heart was whispering her.

She needed to be patience, but at one point refused to continue doing that.
Was believing in them as a couple ... but unfortunately he was too confused and was delaying everything for months.

One day she understood that his indecision was only the result of the fact that he just liked living in 2 worlds ... having 2 lives in the same time.

It was not a correct decision ... but this was the truth.

He loved her ... and even a lot ... but in the same time he was not choosing her.
Everything had been delayed till the day when she stoped asking him to choose her ... and in fact to not even bother to do it.

You see ... asking someone to choose between you and another person ... the decision itself might be the decision of changing his life completely and that might be uncomfortable or even scary for that person.

Even if he likes you ... or even loves you ... it's not you the problem and it's not that he prefers the other person but the past and the present means the confort zone ... and the future ... even if might be a beautiful one ... might look as strange path to follow.

Looks like annoying to see a man that does not know to decide which of 2 women should represent his life ... but changing life completely is not a decision that everybody can take.

And there is a saying "whatever you are not changing, you are choosing".

Letting him choose ... that he is not changing his life ... and telling him as not even bother to choose her ... was the best lesson she could teach him.

The change is not for everybody.

Accepting that and continuing your life ... on another path ... with someone else is sometimes the only option.

A red rose

They were in love by almost 2 years, but he never gave her a present ... not even on her birthday.

He could give her any present she would love to have ... but somehow he did nothing about that.

It was like he was ignoring that she would love to receive something beautiful from him.

But all this time he was connected with her and loved her in a way she never felt before.

Kissing ... or simple touching her was giving her sensations she never had till the day she met him.

She was a mature woman and wanted to see real facts from him, but she was also delaying everything ... and meantime was enjoying the love story with him.

It was difficult for her to understand why he never came at her with a flower, but in the end she realised that all she wanted from him was his infinite love ... even if she adored, like any other woman, to receive presents from time to time.

Her mother and few friends asked her one day how is it possible to be in a love story with a guy that could buy all kinds of presents, maybe even daily, but he was never interested about that.

One day before Valentine's Day, he came with a red rose, kissed her and whispered her again "Would you marry me?!"

It was the last meeting before the end of the story.

He adored her and did not want to let her follow her path, but she also liked that he was always coming back into her arms .. even if lately she told him so many times .. "go away".

She was amazed that he finally came with a flower at her but also felt in her heart that this is the last time they will meet.

Unfortunately, just like the guy with the red rose, we do not know how to act when we are on the stage of the love story.

Maybe we should read books about the subject ... or maybe the actual story is a lesson, so that we will be prepared for the next story.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

And maybe a gift for her, does not mean a ring with diamonds but a simple red rose.

Just remember that e everything will come from you ... will make her happy ... and the whole meaning of the love story is to make her be again a beautiful happy soul.

Leaving

Are u leaving forever?!
Nooo ... my dear! Only the train is leaving.
My soul will remain with you"

He decided to leave for a while.
Was in the train and the train was leaving... and she did not knew if he was leaving forever or not.
Leaving for a while was the only trick he could do so that she understand the fact that negotiation must not be part of a love story.
Instead of deciding to follow the harmony path, they broke up tens of times, lied and even cheated each other.
Instead of enjoying a love story that was a great one ... she only tried to dominate the situation in a useless way.
He was the kind of the guy that knew very well what means domination, lying, cheating ... and destroying the harmony from a relationship.
He did all of these in the past.
Was disliking the fact that even if everything was actually perfect, she could still think of adding those things to their story.
Explaining her was useless.
Once he tried to explain that nothing can brake their story ... not even lies, cheating or the stupid need of domination.
Wanted to say the whole truth ... but even if he felt everything what was happening and was sure on what he was saying ... in one point he realised that he has to wait for long the day she is going to understand and accept the fact that they lived the perfect love story.
Maybe this is what it was about.
She was a beautiful lady, but a little bit unlucky.
Life offered her all kinds of lessons ... and the solution at that time was only reacting in that way.
Seeing a perfect story, but having all those bad habits from her past ... she forced the story follow the silly path of domination instead of harmony.
The fact that he was leaving, not knowing exactly if he was doing this just for a while ... was only to let her have time for understanding that they were the perfect couple.

But she could not believe she was so lucky today.

He let his soul at her ... just to feel him anytime will miss his presence.

And the train left ... and the love story remained just a memory ... a very beautiful one.

He wanted to come back only in the day she will believe in them as a couple with no need of lying, cheating or domination.

I love you, that's the one thing matter for me.

He meant everything for me! That's why I am always available whenever you call! But as woman, I do expect lovely messages from you too. Calls, I can save it, but messages I can read it back!

Why it's so difficult to type me messages? Not even good morning message or good night message! I want to merrily reply your messages but you not replying either.

Each time seeing a lovely message I wanted to forward to you, but u don't read it! You have no time. In fact you will ask me to tell directly the message.

I missing you so much. Sometimes only through my writings you can feel my feelings towards you.

Of coz I miss you voice, face that's we used to chat in video calls. But give me a chance to send you SMS and reply from you.

Every man are different and you style is totally different dear. But let me be the old school gal, I just want to receive a message from you.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

My dear love,

I am still hoping that everything will be ok.

I'd like to look at you and leave you alone ... but I don't think I can.

You want to do the same thing ... and it clearly doesn't work out.

We hide the fact that we love each other.

I look at my actions ... and it's clear that I love you, but I hide that I love you ... I just love you secretly.

I look at you ... do you want me to believe how you drive me away with your eternal "please leave my life silently ... but not forever"?

The cruel truth is that WE ARE IN LOVE.

Like it or not ... that's the truth.

We hide it like naive people ... every day ... through everything we do ... but ... every day the truth comes out.

I'm bored of lying that I don't love you.

I'm bored to see you ... how you want to move away from you and when I get closer to you ... you lose control on everything.

My dear ... the truth is cruel.

We love each other ... and we can't breathe one without the other.

#adriangdumitru

Seeing her again ...

Months ago she was mad on me.

I only accidentally met her in traffic, but only 1 or 2 seconds i could watch her.

She never looked at me ... she was too mad to look at me again.

Was disappointed ... by me, but also by us.

We had a great love story together ... but we just got lost.

But later on, the story continued.

We realised that even if we live an imposible love story, we are soul mates.

The story itself it was imposible, but nothing could stop us be again together.

We broke up 100 times ... but in the end we understood that is actually imposible to brake up ... and we decided to enjoy the love story together.

I knew she was the love of my life, not when she was kissing me ...or she was telling me one million times that she loves me ... and i adored that ... but when she was mad on me.

At that time ... seeing her for just 1 second ... it was like magic.

I was happy and unhappy in the same time ... but i knew that i love her a lot.

Soon ... we will celebrate 2 years of the imposible love story ... and we will probably continue for another 50 years more, even if some other people from our lives, don't agree with us.

Today we are ok, but i could see her again few hours ago for only one or two seconds.

I was missing her a lot, cause i did not saw her in the last few days.

I wanted to hug her ... to kiss her ... and to whisper how much much i love her.

But today ... it was imposible to do that.

We met into a supermarket, close to her house, she was with her family ... and too many people around so that i could express my love with no fear.

I left the shop, cause i could not stop myself.

I wanted her do much ... but i left.

Only few seconds ... made me feel in a way i never imagined i could feel.

This time she was not mad on me.

She was mad ... cause she could not enjoy the fact that i am in front of her eyes.

I asked her ... to not worry ... cause our time will come ... but still she was unhappy.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

It is funny cause with some people we spend years and we really don't care about this, but with others ... especially if it is the soul mate ... few seconds means a lot.

But we should be grateful to the Universe ... cause offered us today a moment of being together.

#adriangdumitru

The first kissing day

We thought we are met for business purposes. To upgrade our life and achieve our goals! Both of us dream the same, aim the same! The best part is passionate! He always mirroring me! He knows my feelings better than anyone!

He can't deny anymore that he likes me very much! He attracted to me! He loves the way who I am. There are times I saw he stunning while I'm sharing my ideas! Meanwhile, definitely I attracted him too! His masculine own way! The way he give respect, motivate me, in fact support in all my undertakings!

He offered to send me home, because I have to call Grab otherwise. He drove me home! We reached my house but he didn't stopped the car. Wonder what happened, I asked him, if there's anything wrong.. He said, yes dear, I need to talk to you! With my fast heart beat I said, we just spent time on talking. He parked his car near the park, which just nearby to my house.

I felt my heart beats very fast. I knew it's something going to happen today. Without hesitation, he grab my cold hands. I just feel so warmth of his hands, but getting heat as he started to rubbing my hands gently.

The cool air conditioning car felt so heavy. My heart continue to pump fast! Not sure what's going to happen in next seconds.

He started to talk. He directly proposed me! He said, that he truly, sincerely, deeply in love with me! I felt to cry loud. I'm happy such a gentleman can fall in love for me?

I just said yes to him! With my permission he started to kiss my lips, made warmth, wet lip kisses! Make my whole world turn upside down! Just hoping he won't stop kissing me!

The first kiss on our special remarkable day! He made the day beautiful, memorable. We are waiting for the universe to gives us permission to next step!

“When everything ended ... we fell in love again ... even much stronger than the first time.”

Truth is that being in love means also being blind and not see the real personality of your partner.

You see only the beautiful part of that person.

Later on, time and the difficult situations reveals the other part of your partner.

You see that the same person starts to act in a different way and that things changed a lot.

You also cannot believe and accept the change, but you want to continue.

You used to think that you met a person that is defined in a specific way and this is how things will remain forever.

Actually, when we are in love, we change a lot.

We show only the beautiful part of us.

Then, after a while everything becomes just normal ... and we start being again the person we used to be, before we fell in love.

And the love story becomes a simple relationship, just as other relationships, but not the great love story that it used to be when you first met.

And there are lots of people that sometimes just end everything ... when they see that the story is not anymore what it looked like to be.

Yeesss ... we get lost ... and we end up ... having again a simple boring life ... just as we used to have in the past.

Seeing the end of the story can make you decide if you just stop being a character into a fairy tale ... or remember that in a real love story everything must be ... just like in the first day.

The fact that the person that loves you so much, makes you shine like a star ... be a positive person, show to the world only the good part of you ... is something you must keep in mind all the time ... as being the perfect script of your life.

If you decide to stop the story, going back to the normal life, being again a person that does not shine ... is just a silly decision.

Or maybe you decide as when everything ends ... you fall in love again ... even much stronger than the first time.

“Fuck it!
It is the perfect story.
I have no way out!”

I know a very beautiful lady, brunette ... with a very beautiful smile.
If you would see her ... you would certainly fall in love in the next moment.
I already know her by almost 2 years, but don't know her age.
All i know is that when she is sad, she looks close to 40 ... but when she smiles, she looks of 20.
She dresses in a fancy way, she drives a beautiful car and i always thought of her as the perfect prototype of woman that a mature man would love to have.
I like her a lot ... but i am not a mature man, so i am not dreaming of her anymore.
But she is in love with a lost soul.
She loves him a lot ... but she keeps wondering what can she do with a guy that does not know how to deal with a determined lady.
She gave him one million chances, but the guy does not live on this planet.
Except infinitely loving her ... he doesn't know to do anything else.
But ... he writes her love letters everyday.
He lives in a perfect universe that has only 2 beings in there ... him and her.
They are extremely happy in that world, but after she leaves ... she is ruined emotionally.
She feels that the guy is the love story of her life and she wants to have him in the real world.
But the guy is like a statue.
He never leaves that place from the parallel universe, cause living in there is fantastic.

It all looks like an illusion ... but being in there is the only time when they feel happy.

She feels crazy about the whole situation ... cause she understood this is the perfect love story and she has no way out.
She is deeply in love with a lost soul ... and can't find any path for them.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

She even asked me what to do ... cause if she leaves the story, she is going to be very unhappy ... but if she stays in the story she actually can't have him in the real life.

I smiled to her ... and said ..." just enjoy the story ... there is no real world ... and if there is one ... that is the one where you feel happy!"

Love is beautiful ...

Love is beautiful when two souls meet together! They united in love. No matter how far is the kilometers! 6074km just a number he said!

It's beautiful to know that,there someone waiting for my call! 5hrs timing difference between our countries. But we always managed to spend quality of time together!

We can give thousands of reasons to avoid someone but only one reason to keep on touch! And that's love!

It's rare for a businessman busy for dating! Money minded always goes for money. But, he spent time whenever he gets a chance!

No matter how busy he was, how tired he was, still he call and make me smile!

Seems my smile make his day 😊

His words may looks sweetness but he really genuine person too! He never gave up on me, and never let me go.

He wants to stay forever with me. He wants to built his own family with me. He don't want me to suffer In my life anymore.

Been typical Asian Indian man, he want his wife to be his homemaker. A wife who on duty for the husband himself, and his kids.

These are his 42th birthday wish! Let's see what the universal prepared for him!

Happy birthday dear G

Abstract love

In the morning it is the perfect love story.
In the afternoon ... she blocks me everywhere.
In the night, i ask her to marry me ... forgetting that we are already married.
... but she says "Yes!"

A friend of mine from Paris, wrote me the other day, telling me about his abstract love story ... he is involved in.

In fact, he was always in love ... but this time he finds no way of ending the story.

The word abstract defines the best their love.

She loves him.

He loves her.

They can't live one without another.

But the problem is that they met too late in life ... they are already married and their love story looks like an imposible one.

Every 2-3 day they brake up ... and then, after seeing again ... they realise that they are soul mates and can't brake up.

And they do this by months.

They tried everything.

They blocked each other, they said ugly words one to another ... and they even cheated each other.

Nothing worked ... so that they just end their imposible love story.

But what happens, when they meet ... they just feel the infinite.

It all looks like a curse ... cause they can't ve togheter in the real world, but can't break up either.

They could write a book about how you could brake up.

Could be a best seller with on million sollutions ... but no one worked for them.

So, my friend asked me ... what can you do when you live such a beautiful curse?!

I wrote him back ... "Try to be grateful that you met her ... and she should do the same.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Indeed, you met too late, but having the infinite when you are together ... is the most beautiful gift you could ever receive in this life.

Don't lose her ... and just enjoy the curse of being in love together!"

#adriangdumitru

"And then one day, there was YOU."

We live our lives in such a dogmatic way.

We have so many dreams, plans and desires ... and the biggest problem that we really have ... is that after years of work ... everything is accomplished.

And that is the moment when we realise that we have everything, but actually have nothing.

In the real world everything is just as we planned.

Inside of us there is a huge gap.

We see that emptiness that nothing and nobody can ... at least hide ... to not see it so often.

We feel lost in an Universe that we totally dislike.

"And then one day, there was YOU."

She appears from nowhere ... she wants nothing but love you ... and you to love her.

And then ... you feel lost again.

Between having "everything" ... but nothing to satisfy you ... and actually ... daring to live a beautiful illusion ... you don't know what to do.

All your dreams and plans are accomplished and on the other hand she is the only one that added some joy to your life ... so that your soul ... at least not look so empty as it used to look like.

You have the infinite ... the way you defined it ... but you still ask yourself if everything is just an illusion.

Yeeess ... it is an illusion ... but a beautiful one and you should enjoy it.

Maybe the whole meaning of life is learning to see the beautiful side of the story. and live it ... just the way it is!

The Princess ... The Castle

The Love Story ...the perfect script for a fairy tale

We have an addiction for stories since we are little kids and parents tell us different kind of stories with princesses, magic castles, the impossible love story between a prince and a princess, etc etc.

All of us know those stories.

We all heard them many, many times in the childhood.

Later on, we start life and we miss those stories.

The desire of hearing the story is now the desire of meeting the story.

And you dare to start dreaming at a fairy tale for your life.

But you don't want a simple love story, you dream for an impossible story so that it looks like the ones from the stories you heard when you were a kid.

And this is why you fall in love with someone that lives far away from you, or by a married person or you are married, can't divorce, and you fall in love of a person that is 20 years younger ... and many, many other similar scenarios.

Whatever it is ... the story looks like an impossible one.

The old addiction for fairy tales is running your life and there is NOTHING you can do about that.

One day, you think you woke up, live with the illusion that you are a mature person today and you close the impossible love story.

The next day, you wake up, feel again empty inside of your soul and you do what?!

You start looking for the next fairy tale.

You don't smoke, you don't drink, you don't take drugs ... you look like a normal person, with no addiction at all ... but you love to consume fairy tales from time to time.

You cannot survive without them.

Is there any chance to stop this addiction?!

Well ... even the people taking drugs ... some of them ... succeed to end their addiction.

But only if they find someone in their life to offer them infinite love and ... infinite understanding.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

The day you will see that the addiction is NOTHING than an illusion, that is the day of awakening ... the day you can live into the real world.
Don't look for fairy tales ... dare to enjoy the real life.

We are in love

He loves me so much. I love him the maximum. We are in love!

He spent his whole day with me. It's quite hectic busy days for a professionalist man as he need lots of concentration yet he spare time for me.

How come we are connected the whole day and we still have topics to talk 😊 we love to talk, he goes for a long drive and he will show me his country!

We loves to talk secretly when there people around him. Loves to see his reaction whenever I tease him. He quite well maintained masculine man 😊 he won't give up easily ever.

We don't know how far out relationship will grow. Especially during this pandemic, he quite loss in his business till one of the property had sold out. But this strong hero, he work so hard. As we are always in video call I can see his works, how it conduct his workers to do the job.

He used to get tips of amount for his work. He deserves it. He deserves praises for his works. I always praise his work,

He gets excited and encourage, but naturally he is self motivated person.

That's why I like him so much. He don't need my support he said. But, enough seeing me smiling his wish.

Hope he will rise up in his business again. Business losses were his stress and I'm the stress relief pills for him. Of coz there are times he stressed and disconnected the line angrily. But after calm down, he will call and cooing me ready. I love that, I can't show him angry face anymore.

I love him because he know how to handle me. My emotions, moods. He loves me because he never get such love, an affections before. The rest we surrender to God, Let the universal take care of the flow of this relationship.

A real story about stolen hearts
Being in a prison in Genoa, Italy, promising God he will never steal again

A young handsome guy, the idol of many beautiful ladies, was in jail in Genoa, Italy ... for being a thief.

He was very mad.

One day, he understood that only God could help him go out of the prison sooner, and started to pray.

And he prayed for many days in a row ... and then he continued for weeks.

One day, when he was praying God appeared and asked him:

"What can i do for you my son?!"

"God ... i beg you ... take me out of this prison and i promise you ... i will never steal in my life"

And God replies ... "Are you sure about this?!"

The handsome guy say "Yes God ... i promise you, i will never do that again... but just take me out"

God smiled to him and said "Ok my son. I will do this for you, but in case you will do it again, i will steal from you what you love most in life".

Soon after, the guy went out of jail.

He was so, so happy being free again.

He stoped stealing from other people and became an important businessman in his town.

Everything was ok cause he never stole since he left Genoa.

But there is a saying ... a thief is just a thief and will die as a thief.

Lots of ladies loved him, and he always was stealing there hearts, forgetting about the understanding he had with God.

God forgave him again and again for many, many years ... till one day when he sent a guy to steal the heart of his wife.

She was falling in love with that guy and could not forget him no matter what he was doing.

The love story continued for months and the guy was appearing and disappearing again and again and again.

And was doing this for months.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Situation became even worst ... his wife told him the truth ..that she is in love and can't stop loving that guy.

But the guy ... was not stealing her for real ... he was only taking her for short times and then he was taking her back.

He only wanted her heart and her soul.

... NOTHING else.

It was almost as a curse, till the ex prisoner from Genoa remembered his understanding with God, that he needed stop stealing.

But you know ... there are many ways to steal and many ways in how we can act stupid in life, pretending we are playing in the right way, but we cannot fool God. Respect the laws of the Universe and NOTHING bad will happen.

Amazing feel the unity of our two souls

Every day I fall more in love with you my Love, Amazing feel the unity of our two souls, that have journey through time, space for each other together.
We are only rich of love, there is no space for hatred, negative emotions. There's no space for negativity! But we create more positive vibes for us! We both are spiritually connected. We trust in almighty God.
We don't mind about tomorrow. Because we don't know we will wake up or not? So we're enjoying each seconds of life God has given to us! We are living in present.
You give me a reason to fall, Fall in your love! I couldn't love anyone else as this before!
You are the reason the world is bright, but it goes dark when you are out of my sight that's why I always need you by my side.
My own world king, my hero! I love you always till to the end of my days

#anniepdavid

I mean it!

'I love you' , "I miss you " are maybe the three simple words my love. But, the meaning is too deep. I really meant it from bottom of my heart!

Love is a feeling which is felt from heart. There are no logics or weep.

When I say I love you, I mean it from my heart.

It is not now, it is not today, was right from the beginning! From the moment I fall for you.. That's the day I have decided, you are the one I want to spend my whole life with.

You are in my every thought, running in my mind!

When you are not around, I feel gloomy.

I just wanna be with you all the time, by the day. Love you and miss you honey!

The more I see you my love, the more I fall for you. With each passing night and day, my love has only grew. Since the time I met you, I knew it was you. Why do I feel so passionate when I am with you?

I still remember that moment, when I first saw you. That instance and moment, I knew that you are the one for me. The passion in your eyes, the radiance on my face, your look made me blush.

Time has surely passed, but you are still the same for me. With time I love you more like I always did.

I am thankful to you; you made my life such a wonderful place. I love myself, because I am in your space. Darling, I want you to know that you are my life's most beautiful feeling. And, I would like to make you remember something, that I am yours.

I love you and I miss you always even when I sleep you are in my dreams!

Because you're in me, my soul!

"I know what you've done last summer!"
The moment when you need to accept that the love story was only an illusion.

A philosopher is telling everybody that everything we see is only an illusion and if you take the illusion as something real, not recognizing what it really is, in the end it will all become a desillusion.

But the difference between a real priest and a philosopher is that the first one refuses to taste the illusions of life, but the second one is tasting from all the illusions life can offer ... just to understand better what is all about.

But even the illusion that we can enjoy the illusion and believe we are stronger than it is only a lie.

Actually ... a philosopher even he is knows the truth about what is life about, still want to enjoy it.

It is the believe that ... we should give it a try and see if maybe ... this theory is wrong.

The priest has a dogmatic thinking.

He will accept the theory just as it is.

But the philosopher, studying and studying again ... just can't accept the things as they were presented to him.

After reading thousands of books, he thinks he is smarter than all the other philosophers from the past.

And one day the Universe starts to laugh of his ideas.

A beautiful lady appears in the life of the silly philosopher.

He falls in love.

She falls in love.

They have an infinite connection together.

He starts to believe in a new theory, that if it is infinite connection ... then is not an illusion, but an absolute value from their lives ... just as God is.

And the Universe is again laughing hearing this theory, but let the chapter of the love story goes on.

The story between the philosopher and the beautiful lady continues for months, till one day when he finds out that she cheated on him not once ... but twice ...

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

with a friend of her and also with one of his friend.

He could not believe it.

His new theory collapsed ... and in front of the Universe, he needed to accept that any illusion is just a desillusion.

He tells the beautiful lady that he knows what she did last summer, but even if she dislikes speaking about illusions and desillusions ... she replies that the illusion is only in his mind.

And indeed ... the illusion was only in his mind. Seeing NOTHING as something very important is the illusion itself.

Spread love ... no hate

Everyone have a dream. We love to live in a dreamland. We have our own loved ones alone in our dreamland. We live the way we wanted to be in our dream world.

But how far it's true? Real?

The sametime how many of us appreciate for what we have? We don't be grateful for whatever we have, who ever in our come and go for reasons, and some just take us for granted.

But whatever it is, we just show them love, some of them behave vulnerable to us, they lack of love since their childhood.

Some harmful to others coz they brought up in broken family, lack of discipline, care and love.

As human beings here, we are living together, we try to help if we can do otherwise we mind our own business.

We try to keep silence rather throwing words hurt others.

Our words should calm, encourage, inspired others. Otherwise, better don't open mouth unless it's necessary.

No one here to judge anyone, let God judge us. We just keep silence and workout for them to become better person.

Love can change anyone, our surroundings, our environment. Try to spread love, no hate

"I miss meeting you for the first time"
... when you see the future just by writing her
... already knowing she is a beautiful soul.

One day, you meet a very beautiful lady over social media, and somehow you start chatting with her.

And you write for hours.

At the end of the day, you realise you wrote a novel together and you already know she is a beautiful soul.

But, she is polite and is asking what if she is not what looks like.

You are already connected with her and can't wait to meet in the real life.

You could also say, seeing the future, that you miss seeing her for the first time.

And you start dreaming about the first meeting ... first kiss ... first touch ... first time of infinite connection.

You ask yourself ... "Am i dreaming?!"

It's free to dream ... but you always had this dream of meeting a beautiful soul with a beautiful smile.

Can it be real?!

Maybe ... why not?

But in the end, you have nothing to loose.

What can happen?!

You can meet her, dance, smile ... and worst case scenario ... you could fall in love one of another.

But it will be NOTHING wrong.

You will enjoy a beautiful chapter of your life.

I miss him so much! But he never!

This man showering me with his unconditional love! He cared me so much.
Buzzing me like non stop rain!

He wanted to with me all the time. How difficult for a professional career man to spend more time with his love? He do the max,till the next day! So wise dividing time between personal and career!

He never get enough of me. He regret we didn't meet earlier. Yeah! We in our forties but our souls are full of love so and bright. So he doesn't want to waste our time! But to spend time getting older together!

Everyday we were talking but never get tired of talking to each other! In fact we craving for each other! Just like other couples we do argue, of cause it's because I'm hot tempered and no patience at all but he always flexible man!

I'm the one who don't trust in anyone, especially men. I trust only men in my family!

This man said he would be one of them!

He always asked about my father, brothers, and their characters. He always try to be the best man as he can.

The best part is, I don't need to explain my feelings for him. He can tell about it before I tell him.

He is mirrors my own image. He loves his family as I love my family too. He give first place to God as I prayed all this while. He is my comforter whenever I'm suffering in pain!

He learned about my disease, pain management for body. But trust me, he is my best pain killer😁😁 and that's I fall in love with him. I wanted to be with him.

Even we talked for the whole day and night I still miss him! When I said I missed him so much he replied, I don't know how to miss you!

I only know to kiss you!

Sealed with kisses❤️

#anniepdavid

You've done nothing ...

"Have you ever done anything for us?!" ... she asked.

"Let me answer for you ... You've done NOTHING".

...he replies

"I've done NOTHING ... but i loved you a lot. Isn't that enough?!"

Jumping from where we are today, to where we want to be into the future, trying to redefine completely our love story, we come up with a very long list of things that we need to change so that the relationship will become a better version of what it is.

And changing the script looks like a good plan.

Discussing with the partner, the new way in how the story will continue to look like ...we see again the hope and maybe the joy of being together.

But inside of us we only have one simple plan ... jump from being unhappy to being happy ... and we end up only hoping we will not be unhappy anymore.

All we see now is a great love story that has the signs of emotional bankruptcy. Everything is ruined.

And we believe it had happened because we did NOTHING as things to be great again.

If i would ask what had to be done, you would have no answer, because everything happened was that you were blinded by love.

And the day you are blinded by the love from your soul, you spend your days only dreaming and enjoying the love story, but NOTHING else.

It all becomes an obsession, of staying into the love story and not losing the love story.

Everything you do ...is just living and tasting the story you have together.

The past had gone and the future does not exist ... but only the present is real.

And the present itself means the beauty of the great story you have together.

This is why doing NOTHING can be also part of the script, especially if you only focus on living the joy of being a couple, in a unique chapter of your life.

I think that if it is real love, and you love a lot your partner, most probably that is enough.

#adriangdumitru

The CURSE of being in love.
You are not completely in the story
... but not completely out of the story

Have you ever wondered what is really going on when you are in such situation?!

I mean ... in the end it all looks like a real curse.

But what is it about?!

Is it a curse or a lesson?

Why you stay for a while in the story, then you are sent away from the story ... as in the end to be recalled ... and this is like a circle ... happening on and on and on.

It's like the chaos it running the show but still you are the main character from the script.

Your mind tells you ... get out of the way, but your heart is telling you that you should enjoy it.

And this is exactly what you do ... get out of the story, then come back and enjoy the story.

And everything becomes a habbit.

But why?!

Because you live in 2 totally different worlds.

In one, the love story is real.

In the other one, the story is seen just as an illusion.

The same story ... different way of seeing it ... but seen by the same 2 persons.

One day you decide to stop this chaos of jumping all day long between the real world and the fantasy.

And we even think it stoped forever.

But we love the chaos, we like playing around with situations and words ... telling "i love you" and then "i hate you!" .

And then we see that what we thought it's a curse, it's only a game for adults, that forgot to grow up.

2 people acting as kids of 12 years old, asking for something and then changing their minds.

And they even love this game, cause they know it will never end and it's fun.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

"I will block you.

I will dissapear ... but i will just reappear again, cause i fact i love you.

I only have moments when you drive me crazy and i hate you ... but bottom line ... i probably can say that i love you.

And statistically ... we will restart again, because we just act as the wheater.

Today is raining, tomorrow is snowing or maybe it is a shiny day again."

So ... the real conclusion is that is too much to call it a "curse" ... and if we dare to tell the truth everything is NOTHING that a game.

We should just stop ... and only enjoy the love story.

Cause love can heal our souls.

#adriangdumitru

Love based on you looks!

It's all about beauty in a relationship? Looks very important? But If you love a person you will definitely won't be bothering their looks or appearance!

I'm not that beautiful but he always telling me that he attractive! He find that in so special! He dig me out of the mud! He knows me well! He know how to handle this bom not to blast!

Is it love based on appearance? But I fall for his character! The way he talked to me! The way he motivates me! Everything about him is like my dreaming prince! Love me for who I am! The way I look! They way I live! Everything will be change one day as we are getting older!

We are living this life only once, live it up to the max and spread love! Feel my love till my last breath.

#anniepdavid

The huge desire for her

And he said, whispering in his head, but speaking in the same time with her:

"I just want to see you again.

I want to gently touch you again.

I need to love you for hours.

I want to feel you again ... to see that you are real!"

And he opens his eyes and sees her.

The perfect illusion ... the one that conquered his mind, his soul ... his everything ... his whole being.

He cannot breath anyone. The air without the smell of her love has no value.

There is no reason to continue breathing it.

He infinitely wants her and she knows that.

But the illusion is hidden deep, deep inside his lost soul.

He is looking everywhere for her, but he just forget she was in there all the time.

All he needs to do is just whisper her the password ... "I LOVE YOU!" ... and the beautiful illusion will appear again on the scene of his life.

He becomes one with the huge desire for her.

And if he keeps asking himself if she is the love essay, the muse ... or a spirit that he can touch, enjoy and feel for real.

Yeesss ... love is NOTHING but a beautiful illusion, but how should be life without those illusions?!

Let your soul act wildly ... do whatever wants to do.

Let it dream of love.

Let it smell the love.

Let it enjoy the love even if you are sure if the love story is real or not.

There us NOTHING to do, but experience it.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

I am his..

My life is so beautiful because you are living in it, You are too good to me to be honest! So caring, loving, you everything that I wanted!

You know that I love you,

Also know that I can't live without you,

I'm like drowning in you, through your love. Of course it's just an illusion, but your love creating my fantasy!

I can't stay without you now, Cant stop you running in my mind, thoughts.

I can't think of anything without you, Everything remind me you alone, love.

My love, for you I might be just one person in your life, but, for me you are the only one, my life, my world!

You only give me a clue, That what should I do, Coz I love you so much! Yeah it's growing deeper and deeper like the roots thirst for water under the ground! No one knows how deep down is my feelings towards you.

I'm happy when we both in touch. Gratefully, I'm so thankful for the technology we have now. Video calls, what's app messages, GIF, everything help us to express our feelings! Not exactly feeling as physical in real but somehow it's so helpful!

No matter how long we talk, how long we see each other, we never get bored! In fact we got lots and lots of other things to share, talk every second! We forget meaning of tiredness, sleeping hours, rest, yet we are still happy!

My love for you increasing day by day! My hormones are increasing without sweets, chocolate because you are so sweet! The way you handling me with care, make me fall for you everyday !

I love to see you, hear your heart beats, your annoying snoring as you fall sleep! I miss everything about you! I can't believe I have you in my life, but I believe in the Universe!

I know you are mine, one day we will unite together! We will share our love with our loved ones! That's where you will know that I am yours, and you are mine! We born for each other!

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Each moment is like bliss,
Sealed with a loving kiss,
I know he won't let me to miss,
Because I'm his..
Thanks for coming in my life baby! I love you

So ... we changed the password from
"I love you!" to ... "It is imposible to love you!"

We love imposible stories.

We adore them.

We would do anything in the world to live an imposible storyeven if it is an imposible love story.

Wanting what you cannot have ... makes the desire itself ... be the strongest emotion you could ever feel.

And you have it ... but you actually see that you have NOTHING for real.

Days are passing and you want it more and more, cause it is an obsession.

The love story takes you daily from infinite joy to a huge disappointment, on and on and on.

Is like if you want to feel the infinite, you must also accept everything comes after.

Disappointment is part of the game and is just a result of the fact that you have the infinite and then, after the end of the meeting ... you feel that everything is gone.

You need to understand that every love story has a password and if it is a great love story, the connection appears as an always "I love you!".

But later on ... when you feel that the infinite left you ... the password to your soul becomes "It is imposible to love you!".

Is like we play around with words ... it's posible ... it's imposible ... it's posible ... it's imposible.

To stop everything, to calm again your soul ... and feel the silence one more time in there ... you just need to believe in magic.

The magic is part of our lives, but it's invisible.

Only the soul can see it.

Don't think so much ... just say and feel it ... "I love you!" ... and remove from your vocabulary the word "imposible".

Dare to taste what looks like and imposible love story ... but also believe that one day it can be a story from the real life.

#adriangdumitru

Reason of my love

Do you need a reason to love someone? Let the reason be Love!
We just met through social media media, among thorns there's roses too, dear!
I never chat with strangers online before. Internet full of scanners, cheaters, fake ID profiles and so on!
Chats, calls, video calls we get closer as if we know each other before?
Wonder like have I meet this guy before?
Looks like he is not my type of guy!
But we still was talking on video calls!
He so far from the part of world and connection going through between us!
The calls end up but he can't stop calling again and again!
I gave up on relationships but this idiot wants to start it from the beginning!
This thief stole my heart!
It was far distance relationship! There's no direct eye contact or physical touch!
Only communication.
His spend his maximum hours to be with me. The famous entrepreneur! Lawyers are liars the statement I tease all the time! It's my karma now? He such a golden wheel of fortune 🎡 while I'm very very unfortunated! I'm not stable, I left him because I have past.
We don't talk to each other but he contact me again! He reach me through our mutual friends! He wants reunion! His just said the reason is love! He said that he never ever get such love and affection the way I am and he felt for me!
Should I give him a chance? Does this relationship will be the same as the last? What happened if it's goes wrong?
Fear put aside, why not enjoy life with the loved ones? I just surrender it to God!
Let the Universal take care of it!

The Obsession

It says that if it's still in your mind, it is worth taking the risks.

But what an obsession means when it comes to relationships and love?!

And how do we deal with an obsession?!

Being in love ... staying into an impossible love story ... still wanting something that is quite clear that you will not have ... it's an obsession.

You want to change the whole script ... then you forget everything ... do nothing for a while

... then do the opposite ... and just restart again and again.

You love, you are loved ... but everything is impossible to be a love story from the real world.

But the obsession is on both sides and is a huge obsession.

In the moment when you realise that you have everything, but you actually have nothing and on the other hand you have nothing, but you actually have everything ... the obsession becomes even stronger.

You wake up, having that repetitive thought into your mind ... you live the whole day thinking about the same ... then you asleep having the obsession in your dreams also.

When impossible love becomes an obsession ... there is no way you can end the story.

You even think about how you get out dead or alive, but just want to see the end.

But the end is not coming, cause the obsession is the one for the love itself.

The path?!

Maybe learn to take the risks.

Having nothing will not satisfy you ... not trying anything at all will let you be just a coward ... but not only in front of your partner, but also in front of the obsession.

And the obsession will reappear again and again and again.

Be afraid of nothing! Just dare to have what you really, really want!

#adriangdumitru

Block him!

Blocked him again! This is the last thing I do I thought! Hoping that, I won't contact him anymore ! I feel like I don't want him anymore but deep inside I missed him so much! He was love of my life.

I even can't get angry with him! I felt so much of love for him. I was very happy with him! We talk ed so foolish, craziest things! He is my puzzle! He complete me whenever I'm incomplete!

It's hurts me. Unblock him. Only after blocked him, every single words we talked before, our promises will pop up in my mind! Only then every words, every sweet memories with him will refresh in my mind!

Coz all memories still so fresh in my mind. It's all about our love grows well, When it was still new, everything was okay. Everything seems so sweet, honeymoon! It's was the perfect life I lived ever!.

But when something goes wrong, break promises? Betrayal ? No communicating? So busy? Busy with work? 24hrs? 48hrs? But it doesn't make sense right? Yet I trusted him. Believed in him! He might just given me a reason to avoid me but I don't care. I just keep calm. Coz I loved him.

Feel better block! Unfortunately my heart bleeding after block! Missing him so terribly like hell. Wants to see him again! I want him to come back to me!. Hear his voice. It just few seconds n that was disaster in my mind, thoughts, soul! I couldn't accept it!

I want to rebuild my love castle again! I want to be with him again. Of coz its not roses alone in the bed! But also together with its turns as well! He keep on doing the same thing! But how long u r going to be like this?

That fellow won't be calling me normally! But once he noticed that I blocked him, he try all alternative ways to get back me! He call using any other number to reach me out! For sure he will call me, not to talk! But to scold me back!

He will saying this words! Love is patience! I will tolerate with u coz I loved u, I just keep apart myself coz I'm busy but not to leave u ever! Bcoz no-one have loved me as u are my love!

The love in my heart, soul will blossom again !

It's all because I loved him! He is deep within my soul. Now I unblocked him again!

Statistics shows that we are unhappy ... but we could be

Yes, the truth about the modern society is that lots of people are unhappy. And most of them are people involved into relationships, even long time relationships.

You see ... people fall in love, start a relationship and end up being unhappy ... which is weird.

It's like starting a business and know that not after a long time, you will fail ... and be bankrupt.

But you know, even small businessmen are studying what business is about, get involved a lot, make smaller or bigger business plans and try to apply all those things into the business they have.

But almost all the unhappy people, if you ask themselves to define why they are unhappy, or if they ever tried to just redefine their relationship so that could be again a love story ... will give almost no answer, or if they answer they will explain to you for hours why the partner is not bringing the happiness inside their relationship.

Unhappy people don't even read articles over internet about what is the unhappiness, or how to save a relationship.

They just live the unhappiness.

Real love is about connecting the partner's energies, and form a new entity called ... the couple.

That new energy is the one that brings the happiness, the unhappiness and everything else comes from there.

To be happy while being involved into a relationship, is like wanting to be in good physical condition all the time.

You will need to be aware of what you eat, what you drink, go to the gym and respect a clear schedule for that all the time.

And after few months you can easily see the results.

The same in a relationship.

You will need to care, love, smile, spend quality time together and even keep a statistics of what happens everyday ... defining if was bad, ok, good or excellent.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Defining all the time, once a day what is happening and if you don't like what you see just redefine ... is a simple first step.

Because being happy is a choice ... but most probably you need a plan for that ... especially when you are into a relationship.

Dare to redefine everything as a love story.

Day and night you are in my mind

You know what I have been thinking about you each night and day, Is there's anything you never know about me? Is there's any secrets between us? We are just open book! You know about me and I knew about you!
We can't explain how we feeling for each other! Sometimes we talk beyond our boundaries! But, not sure why it's happen to us!
We both share everything, laugh together! Share good and bad times together!
Are we friends? Are we lovers? We need each other all the time! He makes me cry but after that he will persuade me!
He make me angry but later I love his sorry kisses. He handles me like delegates flower! He care, show love that I want! And he giving more than what I need!
Wonder he is my best friend? I feel so comfort! He is just like my brothers who loves me but don't show it! Caring and support like my cousins! And love me like my parents! I seeing everyone's roles in one image! He complete my world!
I was lost once, but he helped me to find out me in myself! I hate myself for being who I am, but he loves me for everything who I am!
In fact, he always encourage and give me more supportive words to be successful person in my life!
I really don't know how to say,
But I love you much my hero! I feel like I am his heroine!

We found ourselves without searching
.... maybe we should not give up

We have dreams.

... and goals.

... and lots of purposes.

But what is the biggest desire we really have into that empty soul?!

We always look at the infinite list of desires ... but we just forget to look at the first position, which is actually the only one important.

The human soul needs love, 24 hour a day ... for the rest of life.

Love is like air ... you cannot touch it ... but you still can feel it when it comes inside you.

You can't see it ... but can't live without it.

Finding the love and realising it's the story of your life is amazing.

You dream for that love story, but did not search for it.

And now you think you should give up?!

So ... you had a dream ... the Universe transformed the dream into a real chapter from your life and now you just want as everything to end.

And we don't even know if it is a happy or an unhappy end.

Yes ... nobody really knows that.

But deep inside ... you still dare to care about the story you have together.

Everything in life is just a result of our choices.

Dream, receive and then act like you really care.

Just dreaming is not enough.

If the courage is missing ... you don't really care enough.

And if you care enough ... you just don't give up.

Quite simple!

#adriangdumitru

Very determined

Very determined she tells him:

"Please disappear!

If you ever get back, be a better version of your desires!

Dare to enjoy our story next time!"

... and she closed the conversation, but also blocked him after.

She did this many times into the past, but she was very, very determined now.

A real love story ... needs to be a great story, first of all!

When the things goes into the direction when everything is just bla, bla, bla ...

and you see both of them unhappy, for a long, long time, you actually understand that the whole management of the story was wrong.

Life is like a scene, we are the actors, but somehow we do not know to play the role, as we should play it.

But why?!

My believe is that in one point, we just lost the confidence that the love story, which for many times, looked like a fairy tale ... is real.

We disconnect from everything that happens and even from the person that we said so, so many times that we love a lot.

And that is the moment when our intuition stops telling us what to do, what to say and how to act.

The art of living in the present moment, without any fear inside the soul, is the one that can really save you.

The partner, from the love story, will like to see again that person ... that made her fall crazy in love.

Remember ... a real love story can be also named a great story ... otherwise we just speak about regular episodes from the boring daily life.

#adriangdumitru

Let's do it one more time!

You thought is a toxic relationship.

You thought that everything was a path to nowhere, and you decided to stop.

You also decided to delete all the lovely memories from your heart ... and forget about the whole story.

If was the love story of your life ... and as 2 idiots you made a plan to finish the story and not to enjoy it forever.

You were scared to death, cause deep inside you felt the infinite love ... on both sides.

And you came back to the real life ... forgot about fairy tales, love stories and others bla, bla, bla.

Became a zombie again ... a person that was not feeling alive.

After you lost the only chance of becoming alive ... you realise that you got back to the usual boring life.

Dogmatic ... normal ... yes ... means boring.

You was hurt, but you also had ben happy.

You had the infinite ... and you throw everything away, with no regret.

And for a moment you see that it was not toxic ... it was something different, that you could not understand.

The whole meaning was to be happy togheter in a lovely story.

The memories are in your heart and overwhelm you.

And for a second you think ... "Let's do it one more time!".

But all doors are closed now, the story ended and the life continued in a another direction.

Now, the real regret ... is that you lost the story of your life.

Yes ... life is about taking advantage of different opportunities.

What you have to do?!

Almost nothing difficult ... just to connect to the moment and enjoy it!

My rainbow, my sunshine

We had conversations the whole night.

Already ended the call but he call back. Again we decided to sleep first as needed to go for work the next day, but again he called. He said he wanted to be with me, not enough time spent with me.

At last we end the call... And he started to message me. He said, I miss u baby and replied miss you too sweetheart! Again another conversation starts from there!

He said, the only way to solve this issue is either one of us get transfer. To have more time, to hold hands, to get the touch, to feel everything.

Our love growing through video calls marathon on daily basis. Sweetheart, the more I see you my love, the more I fall for you. With each passing night and day, my love has only grew.

Since the time I met him, I knew it was he is the one for me. Why do I feel so passionate when I am with him? Because I love him so much , I love you so much baby. You are the reason I can smile back, you are my glue sticks on me!

We can't get much space (whole day spending together) except during my class hours, and small gaps for my family and friends time! We wish to have more then 24hours in a day!

Baby, thanks for coming into my life, and giving me a reason to smile. I always glow when you are with me, all the time and all the while. You're my rainbow that colours my life! You're sunshine that brightens my days! Baby I love myself, because you are in me!

#anniepdavid

A useless pseudo dramatic way of wasting your life

We have a huge disability of adapting ourselves in beautiful stories ... even when it comes to love stories.

Our overthinking is directed all the time in ugly scenarios.

We should also expect as good things to happen, but somehow we don't do it.

Even when everything runs perfect, we think that maybe it's too good to be true ... and most probably something bad will going to happen soon.

Overthinking at worst case scenarios is a disease, but at least we should admit it is part of our behavior.

How can you live into the opposite side ... and have a different behavior?!

First of all, you need to learn how to let your partner love you.

If it's a real love story ... real, real love ... you must just enjoy it.

Most probably someone that loves you, will never hurt you ... and even if that person does it, that's not done in purpose.

If you feel beloved ... dare to enjoy the feeling and forget about any negative scenario.

If something bad has to happen, it will hapen anyway ... but is not happening in this moment.

This is the time to enjoy the love story, not to live with fear inside the story ... the fear that it will end.

One of the meanings of a love relationship is to learn to live without negative emotions.

Love is a very powerful protection.

Love is everything.

The cliché that "love hurts" is just a silly idea.

If you really love someone and also feel beloved ... you should forget about the idiotic feeling of fear.

Real love can make you fearless.

Dare to feel beloved!

#adriangdumitru

"Hey Idiot! I love you!"

One day, a guy with a huge ego ... receives this sms, from a number he doesn't know.

Of course ... he knows where from the message is, even if he does not have the number in his iphone.

He actually deleted the number one day before.

Who could name him "idiot" and also tell him "i love you" ... except that magic smile ... that drives him crazy all the time?!

But we need to be honest ... she also made him happy so, so many times.

Is like living an illusion ... today is happiness and the day after .. the opposite is coming.

But what should be life ... without illusions?!

Most probably a boring way of surviving ... while staying on this planet.

And the guy, with a huge ego, is reading again the message ... even few times.

For a moment he could not decide if he should focus on "idiot" ... or "i love you!".

He is too proud to see only "i love you!".

But how was that girl ... when she admitted she loves him?!

Was she also proud?!

Had she a huge ego also?!

So i wonder if "idiot" + "proud" = "i love you!".

Do you think also the guy loves her?!

Well ... let me tell you the whole story.

He first blocked her and then he saw that she doesn't call or sms him.

Then, as any proud person, he deleted her number, so that he will not be tempted so that he will call or sms her.

So the "idiot" ... receives in the end the message ... but he is so "idiot" ... that he only sees the word "idiot" ... and he does not see that she loves him.

Being proud ... having a huge ego ... well ... maybe you should forget about love stories. It's just not something for you.

Maybe you should become a politician, even a successful one. And by the way ... you are an idiot.

#adriangdumitru

Perfect scene ... the characters are missing

They had everything arranged so that they could be together.

Their love was infinite.

Perfect chemistry.

And they ... failed.

They were blinds because of the love story.

They forget that we live in a real world ... and the real life has other rules to follow than a fairy tale.

So we wonder today, knowing the story, seeing everything as our own story ... why the characters are missing from this perfect scene?

All the ingredients of a beautiful story and the end is so silly?

If you ask what happened with them ... as a couple, they will not know what to say.

But they miss each other a lot ... knowing that they missed the story of their lives.

Yes ... being in love means to be blind, to act without knowing the path you follow.

You care about everything, but you see only the love ... and nothing more.

When the end is coming, when you realise that the Universe gave you everything you could ever imagine ... and you missed the chance ... it's almost impossible to describe the feelings from your soul.

You continue life.

And you still dream about the story.

Think about that perfect scene ... where the characters are missing and think once again ... if the Universe will give them one more chance.

Just one.

The last one ... they promise ... while praying.

My ex not my destiny!

My past, my ex, I thought he is my world, my everything. I live the my own way. I love him even he never love me, show me his care. Never supported in any ways, yet I just was waiting for the miracle to happen.

Till one-day, I realized that my ex, my past, the one I took vow with wasn't my soulmate. Wasn't who can be with me. He is not my destiny. So I need to move on!

That's the day when this hero entered my world! The answer to my prayers! It's my mirror, I'm seeing me in him! We have too many similarities needs, opinions, everything was like " hey I like it too! "

He was so perfect for me! My soul recognize him. I felt my hormones, body react towards him! As if we know each other before!

He loves me like a baby loves the mother! Like nothing else to compare with his love! His love changed my life! His enter open a new gateway for my life!

He ever the man I always want! The universe listening to my demands? He sent me this perfect masculine man, very spiritual and the most, God fearing person.

He is a lover man. He isn't good looking. Typical Indian man living in overseas. Doing his own business. Very well to do but haven't settle down yet!

He never find someone who can love him as much as I do! I'm not good looking enough lady with broken marriage in the past. But when meet him in the social media, not sure why I replied him and the conversation started from there!

We get attracted to each other like the magnets! We have our own weakness and can tolerate, flexible accordingly to our comfort!

Everyday, every second we spent time together as we both believe we already wasted years before! So now it's time for us to enjoy, live to the fullest!

I love u baby, my destiny! Thanks for the blessings in my life!

How you act in the moment when you feel you just lost everything
... just defines you as a person.

In any of the circumstances, being about business, love ... or just life ... is very important to know how to accept you lost and to continue the life after that.

Loosing the game is nothing so important as it looks like.

If you look behind ... into the past, you will see how many other battles you had lost.

But yes ... today you just lost the war.

I mean ... it s not you lost the game ... but the game is over.

Can you accept that?!

Can you see that this is the end of the script?!

It was a fabulous script about a love story, but nobody ever asked you how the story is going to end and you are angry ... very, very angry ... cause you haven't been asked either about the time when the story is going to end.

You call her ... and she calls you down.

She refuses to say back to you that she also loves you ... but you know the real truth ... and just don't want to accept the things ... just as they are.

Yes is difficult to accept when we loose someone we loved a lot ... is just like loosing part of our soul.

Pretending is easy ... is just lying yourself.

Accepting that everything came to an end ... is just part of the life itself, cause everything has a beginning, but also an end.

You cannot fight with the power of the Universe.

Is difficult to understand what and why is happening ... the way is happening.

Is also difficult to accept you lost the game ... but maybe ... just maybe ... you lost this time cause something better is expecting you.

Love is about
... daring to taste life

We try to live a life with certain rules and fulfilled with all kinds of dreams that we try to bring from our mind and soul to the real life.

Years are passing and even if you see into the present moment the things you accomplished ... you look into the past and see only the sacrifices had to be done. The art of having success is studied today by millions of people from all around the world ... maybe even by hundreds of millions.

Personal development is paying a lot of attention to this subject, but what people don't understand is that success is about getting what you really love ... and not about what you want only because you copy the success story that is presented today by the modern society.

If you try to mix the concept of love and success in the same time, you will probably get everything you ask from the Universe.

And if try to define the secret story in a different way ... is that success means getting something you love a lot ... and that real love is just about daring to taste life ... no matter what your dreams are.

One day, if it happens to you ... just dare to do it!

And if it is about a love story ... will help you a lot to be who you really want to be!

The answer to all her questions ... was "I LOVE YOU!"

Once upon a time there was a very determined woman, in love with a strange guy.
He was kind of a writer ... anyway quite lost.
She loved him a lot.
He loved her a lot also.
They were living a love story together.
Everything was perfect, except the thing that the guy was travelling on the way to nowhere ... having no meaning in life.
But he was in love with her.
She wanted as their love story to be into the real life, but he was doing nothing about that.
He was enjoying the love story, till one day when the lady said ... "stop, is enough!".
But to all her questions about what they should do ... hesitating ... he was answering all the time ... "I love you!".
He drove her crazy.
But, on the other side, the guy was meditating and he was thinking and thinking again... and then he wrote a story.
Each time he was doing the same.
He was so deep in love with her, that he just wanted to wait so that he gives her the right answer.
She loved him also ... could not believe in his words, but just loved when he was whispering on her ears "I love you!".
They lived into the love story for years, cause in the end only beautiful words are important into a love story.

You carry your soul in vain

We have a soul ... even a beautiful one, but don't know how to show it to the world.

We carry the soul with us, but everything is in vain.

One day ... our soul is falling in love ... with another beautiful soul ... and the magic happens.

We understand, that deep inside us, is something ... that we cannot be defined.

We knew something was in there ... but did not know what and why.

Then the soul starts being dominated by the strong feelings that come with the love story.

Again ... we ask ourselves and have no idea what is going on.

We are on the stage of life, but we act silly ... we try to improvise ... but still ... we don't even understand what is really going on.

Life should be easier, if everything should be just mechanic ... math ... with certain rules ... but pfff ... the soul has no rule.

It's quite difficult to really see what a soul means and what to do with it.

And we go on ... carrying a soul in vain.

Absence of love or level of chemistry less?

Most of the break-ups occur NOT because of the absence of love... Love is ALWAYS present there. Its just that the level of love present in one side is more than on the other one. ❤️

(Alex Sebastian David)

Love between two hearts will be remain there, till one spouse to keep it silence, or didn't work out. In the beginning, both side wanted to show their best, in the maximum happy mood enjoying the new relationship, discovering about each other. Everything was fun till someone get bored or neglect the other one.

There won't be fun anymore. No more stupid jokes. No more chit chat! Time spending together with the loved ones decreases while level of love fade too. Excitement of waiting for their calls, presences everything no more be seen in their relationship. But what to the other spouse who still keeping up their same spirit?

When the spouse realized the changes they do feel neglected by their loved ones. They feel rejected and disappointments!

The ultimate truth is, it's all done by someone who we really love, care, respect few days ago, few months ago, that is the love of our life! No one else can hurt other than our loved ones.

Communication between two hearts getting lesser day by day and soon it will disappear from their own radars! Can they continue life as normal as before? Or act as if nothing hurts them? Let the universal give them the answer! We just surrender it all to Almighty God!

A love story ... the therapy that helps you wake up with joy

Lonely people, even the non romantic ones are looking for relationships.

We dislike to be alone.

We are designed by God to stay in communities and with a life partner besides.

Being lonely means to stay only with you, but we don't find inside of us the energy that can make us wake up with joy in the morning.

Only a monk can survive being alone.

But you know why?!

Cause a monk has the Divinity inside of him.

He doesn't need anything else.

But ... we are looking for a clone of God to stay besides us and assume that will make us happy.

There are lots of ways to meet a new person that can become a life partner and all of them works if you just know how you connect with that person.

Nowadays also lots of people are using dating apps.

I made a test to see if this theory is true.

Created a fake account on Tinder and searched in my area.

I even had a perfect match, with a person I know, but it was not my case ... as I am married and she is an old friend.

Dating apps help a lot and interconnection with new people to date with is huge.

But nobody tells those people that they should look for a soul mate ... for a love story .. not just for a relationship.

What can the difference between be defined?!

Well ... quite easy: romantic relationships can be viewed as voluntary relationships between individuals who have intentions that each person will be a significant part of their ongoing lives ... but a love story means living a dream with the person you fall in love with.

We should ask for a love story and not just to have someone in our life.

The truth behind the truth with the dating apps is even worse ... is not that is a very small chance so that you will find a love story, but in the end you can only find a sexual relationship.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

And that is happening all around the world.

We just dont know to define what can make us happy.

Ask to the Universe a person that can make you wake up with joy, and that will probably be a love story.

#adriangdumitru

Love and the dance of our emotions

Yesterday you had been happy, today you are not ... and you cant even define the love story as a good or bad thing into your life.

Maybe keeping an excel sheet with daily reports about what happened and defining each day as a good, bad or excelent one, will help you understand better where you are.

But love is not math.

I mean your partner can drive you crazy for many days in a row, can hurt you a lot, can even betrayal or cheat on you ... but if the connection between you and that person is huge ... and you can feel the infinite near that person ... you will see yourself acting as a silly person, going back again each time in the arms of the loved one.

Yes ... you are not acting logically ... in fact you act very stupidlly ... but the huge desire to love and to be loved will not let you run away from an illogical situation.

Being in love is not always living a fairy tale.

Today you feel happy, tomorrow angry ... then you cry again feeling disappointed... and just seeing the smile of that person, for reasons difficult to understand, will make you again happy.

Even meeting that person for 2 minutes will make you happy ... or drive you crazy.

Being in love is a dance of contradictory emotions ... but this are the rules of the game ... if you want to be happy, you risk as tomorrow to be unhappy also.

And indeed ... falling in love is easy, staying in love is difficult.

#adriangdumitru

Handle me like delegates flower!

I'm very flexible to the ones who are good to me. I can tolerate with love if you are kind to me. So, as I told you before, handle me like nuclear bomb! Don't let me to blast on you!

I want to take in charge my life. I don't like anyone control other then me, unless for love! I love you, but doesn't mean that I don't love myself. I love myself, more than anything.

If you're mine, you will know how to handle me. You know how to drive me crazy! How to control in any other matters

#anniepdavid

Love hurts

Yesss sometimes real love hurts a lot.

Real love stories are always complicated.

And if they are simple ... we think everything is boring and we do them complicated.

We want to be happy, but besides that ... we also want lots of other silly things. Our ego is full of desires and some of those desires are not in full harmony with the love itself.

For example, a beautiful lady is having a huge desire of admiration.

She just love when other men are looking and admiring her ... even if it s nothing for real between her and the person that admires her.

The lady is very intelligent and understand that her desire for adminiration is contradictory with the love story ... but her ego wants both things.

The lady is also wise enough as she presents everything as simple ... normal facts.

But what is the truth?!

Can all those desires coexists into our lives??

Can the lady be into a beautiful love story, but in the same time also want as others men to look and admire her?!

I mean ... everything is posible, but in the end what we thought is a love story ... is just a simple relationship.

When we do things that hurt our partners, and most of the times we know it very, very well ... because we are not in the kindergarten ...we destroy the infinity between us.

Real love hurts a lot sometimes.

And when it hurts you just see that everything was just an illution and the love story is not a love story.

But life goes on.

Without synchronicity between our desires, you just loose the game.

The Universe can send to you the best partner in the world, the best love story ... but when you dont know to control your ego ... and let the desires define you ... this is when you change the status from love story to ... just another relationship.

I gave you just a silly example with the beautiful lady, but the message i have is quite simple and this is just that there are moments in life when we should only follow the heart and forget about our silly ego.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Dont change the status of your love story ... if you have one you wont easilly find another love story ... i am a real one.

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Just once more ...

Just once more again I wanted to fall in love. With the one who love me for no reason, just the reason of love of each other.

Loving me unconditionally!

The one I can share everything!

Someone who same mindsets!

As if we are one minded, souls!

Someone who afraid to lose me.

Someone who accepts me!

Love unconditionally!

The one who make me feel like his own queen!

Miles, distance doesn't matter for us!

Bcoz our hearts r well blended together 😊

The best feeling in my life!

This is the love I longing for!

And I found him,

I'm not sure about

Soulmates

Is he my twinflames, any words accurate for it!

I belief that we just need to allow the magic to start coming into our life.

Everything happens for a reason or lesson.

But for none reason I can loss you my love!

Let the universal take care of it ❤️

Love is about the present moment.
Dont bother to look into the future.

We spend too much time thinking, instead of acting accordingly to what our soul tells us to do.

And the result is not what we expect to have.

We feel the love inside, but somehow is useless cause we dont know to express that through our actions.

Maybe the absense of experience ... when it comes to real love, might be the real explanation for the silly way we act.

And we look a lot into the future, instead of enjoying the love into the present moment.

You need to understand love, to define it ... to define what makes you happy, why makes you happy and what is the path you need to follow so that you can have a wonderful life.

Life itself is not do long.

We should live for 100-150 years at least, but what for?! ... if in all the decisions we take, we actually dont show to the Universe that we want to be happy.

We look into the future, saying that everything will happen in there ... and even having a beautiful life is not something for the present moment, but for 50-100 years from now ... but remember ... not today.

Yes ... life doesn't have a manual with clear instructions to follow, but the main idea is ... just dont forget to cherish the moment, especially when you are in love.

How perfect love goes wrong?

Everything changed suddenly!

No more calls, no more messages.. No love, care, attention from him. Without any specific reasons. Became cold Rdy!

I'm just falling out! I disappointed with his attitude. He way he behave. The way he rejected me. Of coz family is the first priority but he should tell me about it. All of sudden I'm seeing his the other side . Which all this while, I never seen before. Till i don't feel want him anymore. Just a dot to this relationship.

My expectations get more disappointments.. I regret potentially for being so open up to him. I can't rely on him. It wasn't stable relationship as before. This considered betrayals too.. Cheating in a relationship as not telling anything but giving important to his own needs.

I have lots of commitments too. I have my own responsibilities too. I never give any excuses to fulfill my duties. A man can't manage between family and love? I don't need him to play with my heart, my feelings. I can do better things rather than wasting time on him.

I would like to cut and clear whatever, whoever toxicity in my life. It's my life, my rules after all! I deserve happiness, joys, abundance in my life. I will continue doing things on my way!

My career, my success is my aim! I can stop worrying about him can focus,moving on or carry on my path to achieve my goals, towards success.

I'm know you love me so much, cared me and can't give up on me. But as you struggling making decisions, I make it simple for you. I'm quit from this relationship.

I don't think so I need to begging for you to back to me. I don't have time, energy to build back the relationship. I need to concern more in upgrading myself, for my future!

I will meet my love one day! He will support me in each and every of my undertakings! He will lift up my life much better as I want! There will be major changing in my life!

You're my magical genie

There's was a little prayer in my heart! To have someone who loves me than anyone else! I knew it's too hard to find someone coz its too hard for me to mingle up 😊

But I continued to pray, always asked the Universal to show the soul if he is for me!

While loss myself in deep grief, sad, worries, depression I begun to hate myself! I never like for who I am! Wonder why my life gone so wrong! Am I so bad? Am I not deserved to be loved? Is it my karma?

This new year, I took a resolution to open up myself to the universal & received whatever he wanted to give me!

Then I met him through the social media. Of course there's a lot scammers! Cheating. Disappointing others! Give more trouble then before. So I called him as scammer as well 😊

But I was in love with this scammer! Just first conversation I found so comfortable as if we know each other for a long time!

While talking my heart beats fast! Coz I realized he is the one I'm looking for all this while!

Earlier I done mistake in my first marriage! I don't it to repeat again!

This time I surrender to Almighty God, with few passwords I needed to confirm the person!

He mentioned the words, I asked God to show me as signal of my future partner! Unbelievable! Each and every word I heard from him!

My body get shaken! Can't think anything much!

The magical genie started to work on me!

I begun to love myself, the way he describes me was make to be myself again!

He is the reason for my changes!

Everyone notices it too

The magical genie sprinkle his love prescription on me!

I started to fall in love with this man!

I never knew him before. Not good looking. Not knowing he good or bad man!

Scammer I said to him!

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

Because he conquered my mind, body n soul!

I always wanted to be in his arms! Wanted to hear his heartbeats to show me that he is real!

I want him to hold me tight & never let me go!

His magical light brightening my day! Because he is the sunshine when I wakes up n Mr moon when I go to the bed!

Thank u my magical genie❤️

It's not what it looks like

There is a nice movie with this name, which you can find on YouTube typing also 'Samadhi 2'.

If you like philosophy, you will just love the movie.

It explains the concept of illusions or what we should explain as ... it's not what it looks like.

But studying any psychological or philosophical theory without trying to apply it to the real life ... into your private life is useless.

Seeing everything in your case is much easier to understand everything.

There are so many things that we should define as illusions.

For example, a close friend of mine, a beautiful lady, in love of a married man, just divorced by her husband sent me a picture today with the love of her life.

They looked fabulous together, but the guy is still married and she is divorced by already few months, waiting for his divorce, that will never come.

She thanked me for the compliment I sent her regarding the photo, but on the other hand she replied that she is disappointed and that she feels that is not on the right path.

She loves him a lot, because he is the love of her life, but in the end is only an illusion ... so ... not what it looks like.

So many people are living such stories that no one talks about ... but in the end we ask ourselves if we want to live an illusory life or we deserve a beautiful and happy life.

But the question is ... how do you fight an illusion ... if for example you meet the illusion daily ... and you feel you have no power to end the story.

Let me tell you the truth ... you cannot fight an illusion but you can ignore it. So just DARE ... to live a real life.

Real life can be beautiful also.

I am ... the ghost ... you are my partner.
Such a wonderful love story.

Probably nothing in the world is impossible.

Even thinking that you can live a fairy tale might be possible if you believe into the laws of the Universe.

Men and women, all around the world, no matter of their age, are so much in love.

Some of them are in real stories and some in impossible love stories, that will probably never be part of the real life.

But the impossible gives more power to the love story.

Meeting her or him on the street ... not being able, not even to smile at the love of your life ... makes you a ghost.

Can a ghost be in love?!

Well ... the ghost is a projection of our soul ... is that fantastic side of us, that we never showed to someone else before.

But if you see that everything is such a fantastic love story ... maybe one day you forget, for a moment, that you are just a ghost ... and with some courage you come to the real world.

Just DARE ...

Love is blind

I am an oyster, bearing the discomfort of mud and turning them into beautiful pearls. This idiot found me, took me out from "muddy" world! He cleanse by showering his love, care, affections!

Yes! I just found my soulmate! He is just simple hard working, typical Indian guy! With natural masculine can be seen. Bald and bold man with dark skinned 😊 Looks, appearance doesn't matter for me! He showed his loyalty, been honest with me! Telling me about his weakness! His past experiences! Family issues! Financially his overhauled debts!

Love is blind! Injust fall in love with him! For who is he! He not wealthy man but his hardworking definitely will make him come upon life one day! I should be his pillar, during his hard times to celebrate good times together in future.

The love so powerful, obsessful! He hooked to me as I am! Both of our of dreams, souls needs, longing for love made us to meets each other! It's our manifestation! Thanks to Mr universal

We r so surprised with our relationship! So comfortable. It's obsessive, addictives, lovely luscious!

He so sweet, kind, lovely, caring, gentle man reminding men in my family. He treat me like his queen goddess ! So humble person, & polite to me! Respect in other way!

Everytime when he speaks to me, there beautiful smile showing he is so happy been with me!

Romance, warm, hot hits even he is too far away! distance miles apart us, but not our hearts always united together

Everything he do, talked just made me feel so satisfied!

He loves me so much! Craves for me, always saying not getting ms enough! He chases me even while his busy schedule! He just look for me all the time! I make him happy coz he deserves it!

Non stop he hooked with me! Day by day love growing like beautiful paradise!

Each and every moment so meaningful! Full of love we craving all this while!

Thanks for the universe again!

Just say the truth ... and send the letter.

Well my dear, there are 2 kinds of imposible love stories.

The first one is when love exists only by one side and on the other side, even if it exists, is not so strong as it should be.

The second one, is actually the kind of shakespearean style, when the 2 of them act as Romeo and Juliet.

So ... what is the solution on both cases?!

For the first scenario i will tell u about a good friend of mine from Pakistan, student at english literature, a guy that wants to be a writer.

He is young and very talented.

His english is excellent, but did not found the path so that he could become a writer.

He is also so deep in love with a beautiful girl from his country, but again he is not finding the path to go inside her soul.

I spoke with him few times and in the end we realised togheter that he should mix the 2 desires, being with the girl he wants and also being a writer, in only one desire.

He promised he will start writing, expressing the infinite love he feels inside his soul, writing only and only about love ... the love of his life.

If the trick works, the girl will understand one day that he is a fantastic guy and he deserves her attention.

For the shakespearean way of living the love story ... well what should i start with?! The love exists on both sides, is actually infinite love, but they cannot live the story in the real life.

If you would analyze the stories behind great love poems, or other great love story novels, you would easilly understand thar behind what you read it was a great imposible love story from the real life.

The story does not need to end in the Romeo and Juliet style, but the fact is that we have an end, which is never hollywood style scenario.

Writing our feelings will make us understand better what is inside of us ... and also might be the way to survive.

So ... just write the truth and send the letter.

I decided to move on for new adventure!

I don't want to waste my time on worrying about my past! I have been so patience all this while and now I want to take the next step!

It's not just a move, but change of my emotions, change my thoughts, mind and soul to be different, not the same way before. I don't want to stuck or waiting something which is never going to happen.

I just wanted some visible treat me visible too. Treating as invisible person hurting me so much. It's too frustrating! Definitely, it's pain for me! So, here I decided! Let me change my pains into positivity!

I trusted people, and let them stay in my life. But they use for their own beneficial purpose alone! I tried my best to tolerate, to give but I don't get anything in return!

People never appreciated the efforts or sacrifices I make for them. They have their own definition about their lifestyle. They never understand what's about love, care, spending time together. They just take me for granted! It's my fault to expect it from the wrong person!

Of coz its the painful decision I ever make but I have too. It's not that easy to exit from the relationship. I was too connected to that particular relationship but I guess it's necessary to leave the "empty room" now.

I want to do things differently! I want to be myself! I want to live my own life, not for others. This wasn't my type of way but I have changed! But at this point of my life, I think the risk is needed to be taken to change my life.

I want to do it, get out from the previous stuck relationship. Which doesn't gives any compromise. Never get care, love or attention that I want. I want my own comfort zone! No more hide and seek games you need to play with my heart! I want to stand up for myself!

I can't change people's behavior, their attitudes. They brought up in such way till their old age, and I can't expect changes from that person. But, I can leave them alone and I can stay with my own independent, respected woman I wanted to be. My progress made them to respect me.

I want to put myself first priority for my own! I want to love myself, I'm lack of love after give and give. I'm tired, empty after so much of efforts. I don't to suffer again because of any relationship. I deserves all the good things happen in my life.

A collection of love essays

Everything is my birth rights. I trust the universal knows better path for me. People might cheat on me but not God. I can't do magic on people, I can do wonders through God! I don't magic frog to be my prince! But magic to my own life!

I believe I doing the right choice! I want to grow in success, abundance on my way. I don't want any toxic relationship in my life. I want to close doors to all the toxicity surroundings me! I wanted to be alone work in silence! Let my silence work, success make the noise!

I trust that I am freaking amazing person! I have lots talented given by almighty God to serve better people. I have my own powerful energy to bright some future! I see all the good things happen in my current life! And I really hope, my patience, confidence, hardwork will be fruitful and make me smile big one-day!

Missing you ...

Missing you is the worst thing ever in my life!

I just wanted to hear your voice. It was the only closest thing in every distance relationship.

The only thing I can do with you, communicate

Your voice, while hearing I will be on top of the world! That romantic, sensual, masculine voice!

Make me so comfort. Thousands of feelings will be one time while talking to you.

Makes me so happy, smile forgetting everything!

It's almost bad feelings that you were apart from me! Miles, distance might separate us! But our hearts meant to be together always!

I feel like hugging u while talking to u. I felt ur breathing near my ears. I feel so warmth as u just surrounded by u.

Of coz its an illusion but hope it will reality one-day! I just wanted to hear from u!

Dedicate this to all distance relationship couple

Leaving ...

- I am leaving
- It s about time, she said. You fixed my broken soul and then you broke it again
- But i will never come back
- Well ... you going to stay in my broken heart forever.

One man and one woman, very deep in love, ended the conversation.

It s too complicated to say "Good bye, forever!"

There are tens of thousands of books about love, but no one about how to break up.

All the writings say only about the end in the best case scenarios, but not about real cases.

Truth be told, being in love can heal your soul, but it can also break it ... forever.

The end is not shakespearean, but it s also not the hollywood movie style .

The end hurts, cause we havent ever been taught to say "Good bye, forever!"

We cant dictate whom to love.

A real life story from a friend of mine who is living in Southeast Asia, who happened to fall in love not with the man whom she is with, but with someone who live in another land... far, far away ... There is a love story not many would agree (a secret only the two of them knew and of course, me)... but for the two of them, love conquers all, defy all the laws,man has ever made...their ultimate dream is to be in each other's arm...being together one day, is what they both aim to achieve...

So the question is .. and i need to ask all of you what should be the scenario my friends should follow?

#adriangdumitru

I just to Get lost in your soul!

I'm so so sorry I just to Get lost in your soul yesterday night! U won't be believing my ability. I never ever do that to other soul but I wanted to do with you alone.

Oh dear! you are full of LOVE! You loving me the way I always wanted to be. You wanted to hold my hands forever! Seems you really want me too!

Both of us are full of mutual feelings, understandings! We are like mirroring each other! Who I am is who you are too!

But situation from both sides are not good at this point. Especially for me! You are tied of your duties, responsibilities, financially and so other matters! And I'm still living in the past too. I needed to cut off toxicity people connection in my life! But you know you so heavy hearted, thinking about our current situation!

If can we want to share a lot of things talk about you and me but we can't!

Both of us are so in love longing for each other 😊 there lots of regrets with few issues or situation

His family connected relationship to few other commitments which makes him decide harder!

For my soul, it's all about our new connections! Which I never even thought before! I'm going through a breakup situation. Me moving on with golden opportunity coming on my way soon!

Both of us are r full of unspoken feelings! Struggling with current situation!

We started this relationship with someone new without any expectations, but we are getting crazy more like lovers!

Deep down in our heart we have strong feelings for each others but we are bounding to the relationship /current situation around!

Dear beautiful soul, you knows that I can bring you the best in you , more success, more happiness! But still you are not ready to give up on me.

Our hearts and souls are connected! we will be the happiest if we are united together!

Your soul not only love me deeply, or keep me happy but you will protect me 😊 make me feel so Safe

It's unexpected new love between both of our souls ! Your soul yearning for me I'm so sure. But our distance will help the clarity and you don't chaotic bcoz of

HIS LOVE. HER FANTASY

A collection of love essays

your decision alone

Once you are ready to break ,changing ur life, upgrading, or something else.
And your soul knows how to get the golden opportunity and receive what you want now!

Both of our souls are faithful to God, we have our own divine time together
We trust Almighty God have better plans for us. We knows things will change...
We don't want a push or rush.

It's just not the right time for our souls for being together ! we have few things to opened up to the relationship we bonded/which bothering us now.

For ur information, my soul crossed the line with you dear! bcoz you have your soul lost in me and so I am

It's like we need each other like drug addicts! Yes we are addicted to each other!
Your soul only wants to make me happy and only happiness between of us.. You don't want it to be a shadows but in real!

Both of us to clear unhappiness relationship surrounded us!

We will opened up to each other if the current situation resolved. With our overflowing emotions, everything we kept secret.

Suffering facing lots of fears, we afraid of the situation in future.

It's all about my unhappy marriage life in my past and wanted to clear things away from us.

It's all about curiosity Comparisons, dissatisfied which we want to resolve it asap
He knows how I struggling, unhappy with the current situation and he always wanted me to come out of it! Because he knows how to live happily with me.

Block n fears makes us weak! But i will try to resolve it soon! Both of us r having contract duty to be resolve before entering the new life. We have to face it! We need to work out together and support each other love! The rest we surrender to God.

THE END

How do you cure yourself when an inevitable end is coming?!

You keep the good memories, see everything as a life experience and start a new chapter.

It is quite complicated to understand and accept that a love story can have an end.

Seeing it just as a life experience is quite unacceptable.

But the whole meaning of life is to have experiences.

We weren't born to have a career, make money etc, but to gather experiences and understand life through those lessons.

Of course it will be difficult to end the love story, but if end had come it means that is not the path you need to follow in life.

You need to let everything come by itself and see that other lessons are waiting for you.

I know is painful, but you need to see that your happiness must not be dependent of the presence of a specific person in your life.

You are an individual and a soul. ... and the infinite is inside of you.

Sometimes, a love story is coming into your life just to cure your broken soul and make you realise that happiness is not a fantasy and can come to you too.

I am not saying that in the end you need to add some make up to the love story, so that it looks fabulous in your mind and soul but keeping the good memories and let the life go on ... might be a good path to follow.

Define the end as a new beginning, but don't let the end define you.
